Subject: Manufacturer's Declaration of Conformity to Directive 2011/65/EU (RoHS II)

We declare under our own responsibility that all our products are in conformity with:

Directive 2011/65/EU (RoHS II)
of the European Parliament and of the Council of 8th June 2011
on the restriction of use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment

within the terms of its scope and the transitional periods established therein for each category of EEE.

In particular, the products multipole connector inserts for industrial purposes, removable crimp contacts, enclosures for multipole electrical connectors, and all relevant accessories, are in compliance although not falling in its scope.

NOTE 1 – This is not an EU Declaration of Conformity and the CE marking, which may be present in compliance with other EU applicable directives, is not referred to this RoHS II Directive.

NOTE 2 – For all our products that were not in the scope of previous Directive 2002/95/EC (RoHS), and which are now classified as electrical and electronic equipment (EEE) according to the new Directive:

- industrial plugs, socket-outlets and couplers: series Pluso and Pluso-Ex;
- switched interlocked socket-outlets: series BK, PK, KI...IB6/EB6, TM, TM-Ex and SQ;
- empty enclosures: series FM, FC; BK, TM, TM-Ex, AC, and AP (APV, APW, APS, APX);
- assemblies for construction sites: series QM, QP and QG;
- switch-disconnectors: series Z;
- fuse-carriers: series VS and VD

the conformity will be accordingly applicable at the end of the transitional period, from 22nd July 2019.

NOTE 3 – We are aware that the Commission Delegated Directive 2015/863/EU of 31st March 2015, to be implemented at national level within 2016 and to come into force on 22nd July 2019, will extend Annex II to Directive 2011/65/EU with the addition of DEHP, BBP, DBP and DBIP. In due time we will update this declaration about conformity of our products to said amendment.
